ORDER OF THE ARCTIC

ROYANNE CHAPTER

Royanne Ordeal

Once again our chapter will hold it's second annual "Pete-Drop Ordeal" at Camp Royanne on November 22, 23, 24 starting Friday night at 7:00pm and ending Sunday morning with brunch for those that stay. The ordeal promises to be one of the finest ever seen this year.

Although it may be raining, we still have an excellent ordeal planned. Meet our chief, Charles Disharoon or the "All-Weather Sakim of the Royanne Camp Base" and ask vice-chief Rick Bianchi how to drive a jeep. Also meet our fearless chapter secretary "Richie Magall" who spent his summer, living in the unexplored region called Biscuit-O. Plus Royanne sustains from the kitchen, and enjoy the comforts of the Royanne Sheraton, Kitchen, and Administration Building.

WHEN.....November 22-24

WHERE.....Camp Royanne, Cazadero, Calif.

COST.....Members $4.00, Brotherhood Candidates $1.75, Candidates $2.00

TIME.....Plan to arrive BY 8:00pm Friday night

WHAT TO BRING...Wear your uniform and OA with up to the ankles, pack your bag, ground cloth, toilet articles, work clothes, and if you have an Indian costume if you have one, anything else you'll need.

For those Brothers who have served 10 months as an Ordeal Master in our area and are not eligible to seal their membership in the Brotherhood, the Ordeal Requirements can be found in the information for New Brothers Brotherhood. Brotherhood fee is $6.75. Send letters to Mike Barnett 1237 Diamond Ct., Fremont, Calif. 94536, by November 3, 1974.
