THE CHAPTER CHIEF (MACHEK N' GULT) COMMENTS

"Live Oak Village will be the number one Village in the Lodge before the year is over."

I base this comment on what I saw at the Live Oak Village meetings I attended. What other Village in our Lodge holds a monthly Executive Committee Meeting or sponsors activities for its members?

When the Chapter hosts the Lodge Ceremonies Workshop in February, Live Oak and the Amangi Villages will have the best presentation ever.

If you have not attended Live Oak's Village meetings, they are held on the first Wednesday of every month (for further information call Cleveland Williams Jr. at 638-0225). You really should attend one of these meetings as this Village is one of the best.

THE VILLAGE (AMANGI) CHIEF SPEAKS

My Brothers,

I would like to give my sincere thanks and congratulations to all who participated in Charrowoods Fall Camp-O-Ree sponsored by the Amangi Nechocwen Village. I personally have received many phone calls complementing the staff for it's fine ceremonies team, exelent dance team and fantastic administration.

I hope to see all village members at our next meeting which will be held the first Saturday in November at Faith Lutheran Church, 20080 Redwood Road, in Castro Valley.

Yours in Brotherhood and Cheerfull
Service,
(signed) Stan Mason

A special article from Talako Lodge #533 is featured in this issue. The Amangi Staff congratulates them on their First Anniversary of their newsletter, the HIGH EAGLE

*****

The next ARROW POINT will be sent in December, 1974.

March N'Gals Chapter congratulates Talako Lodge #133 of the Marin Council for its First Anniversary Edition of the HIGH EAGLE, a Lodge Publication. The article is by Bud Rivers, Foreign Correspondent to the HIGH EAGLE.

The following was found in the (Talako Lodge's) Communications Committee Advisor's Mail Box. The following is presented in its unedited form because no one would touch it and we had nothing else to fill this space with.

Dear Gordon?

Remember that article I promised you? You don't? Oh well, here it is anyway, from the HIGH EAGLE Foreign correspondent.

In the light of the recent shortages in the world wide production of leaky ink pens, we take you for an exclusive interview in the home of Mr. Yang Wang Herohang, Brain surgeon Electro-chemical Psychotherapist, and part time roller-skater.

HIGH EAGLE: Mr. Herohang, how do you feel the international organization of Boy Scouts will affect the sociological development of your paperole factory?

Mr. Yang Wang Herohang: Yes, thank you.

H. E.: I see. I'm sure our readers would be interested in your thoughts on our pollution problems.

Mr. Y. W. H.: Guten Tag Hans.

H. E.: Could you be more specific?

Mr. Y. W. H.: Where is the train station?

H. E.: Yes, oh, well, how about the psychosomatic principles of your new wonder drug "Live-or-die", which is guaranteed to cure all sores, burns, and the painful symptoms of psoriasis?

Mr. Y. W. H.: Como esta Usted, Juan?

H. E.: I realize that you are a very busy man, Mr. Herohang, so I'll try to be delay you too much longer. Why do you feel the technicians are holding out on their allies?, and is it possible they really want Joe Namath on their ice hockey team?

Mr. Y. W. H.: Olga is not here Fritz. She went to the store to buy a new pencil.

H. E.: Herohang! Are you aware of what that means???

Mr. Y. W. H.: Un Coma!

H. E.: Mr. Herohang, do you realize that could set up an international incident?

Mr. Y. W. H.: Does this bus go to Hamburg?

H. E.: Well readers, that was it. Remember that you read it here first. In his continuing efforts to scoop up the hot stories, the HIGH EAGLE comes through again.

Mr. Y. W. H.: The apple cost 5 francs.

H. E.: That's it from our foreign correspondent. And remind all your friends to pay their dues, show them this article so they'll see what they're missing by not paying their dues. Only $2.00 until next month, when our foreign correspondent takes an in-depth look at the lost art of labrine digging. Until later, 1/2/74

Mr. Y. W. H.: Yea and/or wears Army boots

Dear Brothers:

I am proud to say the Machek N'Gult Chapter sponsored Ordeal at Willits Scout Reservation was a complete success. The turnout was tremendous, about 25 members were expected but more than 40 signed up. I was proud to be the Ordealmaster of this Ordeal. Of course I could not have run it alone. There are many people I must thank, Tom Preston for being an excellent cook and my hat off to his helpers. Gordon Gray for his great bookkeeping, Mr. Bill Lewis for his advice, Mike Perucca and his Brotherhood Team, Charles Hoffman and the Ordeal Team. Will Dashiell for his great help. Mrs. Bev Craney for preparing the speghetti sauce and purchasing all the food and the many things she did for us at the Boy Scout Headquarters in Oakland, and Jerry Sakamoto. Especially Jerry for taking over when I wasn't there. Many thanks to all and to all of those who helped that I have not mentioned, thanks a lots.

Yours in Brotherhood,
John Craney
